Q. Write a precis of the following and suggest a suitable title.

A Poetic Perspective on Palestine

Nizar Hassan, born in 1960 in Mashhad near Nazareth, studied anthropology at Haifa University before entering the television industry. He transitioned to filmmaking in 1990 and produced Independence in 1994. His critique was the Israeli concept of "Independence" regarding Palestinian rights. Recently, he shared inside on his documentary My Grandfather's Path, is a long but excellent narrative that plays homage to the Palestinian's struggle. His new film powerfully reminds viewers of the strength and identity of the Palestinian people, providing a thoughtful view during difficult times. The documentary is admired for its creativity and richness, and it should be watched in one sitting to truly grasp the spirit of Palestine.
