Misconception about poverty

poverty is not as bad as people lament about it. There is misconception among masses that money could buy happiness. Real satisfaction could be felt in the small home of a poor man. The children of rich man are brought up by servants. On the other hand, the home of poor man is free from all such things and family members are united. Due to all these characteristics a brave and self dependent man always born in poor family. Many people want to abolish poverty but not luxury. By abolishing poverty the growing civilization would also be destructed.
