

"Democracy is the Worst Form of Governance For the Illiterate Nations"

"Democracy is not the law of majority, but the protection of minorities." Albert Camus. "Democracy is by 'government by the people, of the people } for the people' Abraham Lincoln's. Democracy is not the law for the majority but for the protection of minority. In fact, from the immemorial times peoples are living in groups, faction and in tribes. From that faction peoples passes from different types of governments. However, in that types democracy is one of the best form of government. Democracy in the latest maximizes the rate of literacy which provides them goods and better services. Also democracy in the latest preaches, ~~and~~ provide and proof the best form of government. Democracy and illiteracy do not move together.

Nations having high illiteracy rate can be hoodwinked easily because of they did not

Date: _____

Day:

M	T	W	T	F	S	S
---	---	---	---	---	---	---

aware of their political rights. Also the crowd aligned their expectations from these leaders have the chances to fail in achieving their goals. Although, illiteracy do not only derail the democracy but also taint the system of this government, which make them the synonym of the worst government.