

DEMOCRACY WITHOUT JUSTICE IS TYRANNY

OUTLINE:

I. INTRODUCTION:

Thesis: Justice and democracy are the part and parcel to ensure rule of law, liberty and equality in a society. However, in the absence of Justice democracy changes into autocracy and it suppresses the core values of democracy.

II. How Justice plays an important role in democracy?

IIa. It ensures the equality in society through fair trial.

IIb. Justice regulates the functioning of the policy-making institutes.

IIc. It creates a sense of accountability for the actions of regimes.

IId. Justice promotes the social progress by controlling the lawlessness.

IIE. People trust their leadership and its decision.

III. Why democracy is a tyranny without justice?

in government's actions

(iii b) The political interests and agendas are not held accountable:

(iii c) Under the pretext of public opinion laws are made to serve the powerful.

(iii d) Socioeconomic deprivation of masses in the hands of oppressors.

(iii e) Abuse of power in order to camouflage their inabilities in different sectors.

IV. How tyranny can be reversed by employing justice in society

(IV a) Impartial and strong judicial system, can reverse tyranny into democracy.

(IV b) Provision of freedom of speech and rule of law results in a conducive society.

Date: 1/20

Day:

IVc - Transparency and meritocracy in all governing sectors replaces the oppressors.

IVd - Fundamental rights should be upheld to challenge suppression and injustice.

IVd - By supporting the democratic ideologies and political opinions.

V. CONCLUSION

Alternative thesis statement:-

Democracy ensures the rule of law and freedom of opinions through an effective judicial system. In case, justice is not institutionalized in a democratic society then the oppression and autocracy make their way.