Title: 'Gender Outlook Via Manto's Lens'

Manto was a victim of social hypocrisy. He considered a man as a dual nature of good and evil. Because the society criticized and labeled him as vulgar and obscene. As a literary writer, he was realistic and determined in unfolding the meaning of sex.

Because, Manto wanted to know the emotions of the marginalized class like prostitutes, pimps and petty wage earners. He presented their feelings, socio-moral issues without uncovering the essence of vulgarity. Besides all, Manto was highly raised above the selflessness.
