Title : Nizar Hassan's Documentaries.

Nizar Hassan, a Palestinian Documentarian produced two documentaries. The first one was produced in 1994, named as "Independence". In Independence he wrote on the stupidity of Israel that how they regards snatching of Palestinian land as an act of Independence. Another documentary is named as "My Grandfather's Path." In this documentary, he portrayed the message to be aware of who you choose as an enemy because in the end you will become like him. He warned the people that your anger on Israel's daily violence on Palestinians will make you to become like them. So, try to escape from that trap. This new documentary is long and is a master work.
