

2017.

The Laziness over the Activeness.

The Irrational actions of certain Stakeholders are behind the every evil in this world. Devil is considered as the universal busiest creature and laziness as the main cause of disorganized world by the authors. The authors imagined that if the Royals, Generals and Journalists stayed calm rather than fighting in WWI then the world would have been better than how it is today. Moreover, if the statesmen invested their energies in better activities or simply did nothing would work in the best interest of universe. Laziness is not a curse but a blessing in a disguise, if half of the current European Politicians follow this concept this will surely profit the world. The diverted efforts by various groups and organizations is not cluing much for the improvement of Civilization instead of criticizing unnecessarily, they should help themselves and restore their mental health.

wrong act behind even established in living between right and wrong feelings because it is better not to have feelings than to have harmful and foolish ones, as they will lead to progress, health, and to success, and happiness.

It is difficult to find out what most people want to do with their lives, but if you ask them what they perform best, they will name about what they do best.

But there is always a way to get the day, if one can't perform anything in particular, and one's message should not go flat.

With regard with regard to