Title: "Gender Outlook via Manto's Lens"

Manto, a societal hypocrisy victim. Manto considered man as a dual nature; a blend of good and evil, as they <sup>criticized and</sup> labeled him as vulgar and obscene. Being a literary writer, he was realistic and determined in discovering and unfolding the meaning of sex for depicting the insights of marginalized class like petty wage-earners, pimps and prostitutes and without uncovering the essence of vulgarity, he presents their socio-moral issues. Besides all, Manto was raised above selflessness.
