

Soft power: A weapon to resolve catastrophes:

Outline:

1. Introduction:

Thesis statement: Undoubtedly, soft power is a weapon to resolve catastrophes. Not only ^{does} soft power resolve wars but also influence the countries. It also reduces escalation, resolve economic issues, boost ties among nations and establish peace worldwide.

2. Understanding soft power:

3. Soft power a weapon to resolve catastrophes: (Thesis)

3.1 Soft power can resolve long standing conflicts

A case in point: Iran vs. KSA pact 2023

3.2 Soft power is being used to influence countries
"When China Rules the World" martin

3.3 Reducing escalation among nations
Critical view of Afghan Taliban from Pakistan's point of view

3.4 Soft power values diplomacy rather than aggression
Reuters Report on "negotiation and Diplomacy"

3.5 Soft power is cure for economic crisis

CSIS Report

3.6 Boosting state relations

A case study of Abraham Accord 2020

4. Soft power lacks capability to resolve catastrophes: (Anti thesis)

4.1

wars are being resolved by hard power

4.2

Soft power user nations never influenced the rest

4.3

Aggressions can be reduced through balance of power

4.4

Soft power such as diplomacy has never reduced the escalation among states

4.5

Nations following the ideology of soft power have always experience setbacks

4.6

Hard power is the currency of international system

4.7

Soft power users on individual level never achieved the provision of rights

The Essay

Joseph Nye ascribed in one of the most prominent books "The Future of Soft Power" that nations without the policy of soft power are unsuccessful. Joseph indicated that China has been influencing sandy region in middle East and geo-strategic hubs of South Asia. According to Joseph Nye, the success of China's influence in middle East is due to the policy of soft power. Truly, soft power ideology of the nation states can end the long standing wars, influence countries and de-escalate hostilities. Moreover, soft power policy which values diplomacy can establish peace worldwide. It is the only cure of economic crisis. Nations using soft power can normalise ties with foes. Soft power is the only successful tool to exist. The concept of soft power is based on contribution and co-operation among nation states. The ideology of soft power fully rejects hard and smart powers. Therefore, soft power is a weapon to resolve catastrophes in the world.