

(vi) Extra attempt of any question or any part of the question will not be considered.

PART-II

Q. No. 2. What is belief in the Day of Judgment ? Explore its effects on individual and collective lives of human beings. (20)

- (a) صلح حدیبیہ بحثیت معاہدہ امن۔
- (b) غزوہ خیبر سے حاصل ہونے والے فوائد۔
- *****

Name: Rahmatullah

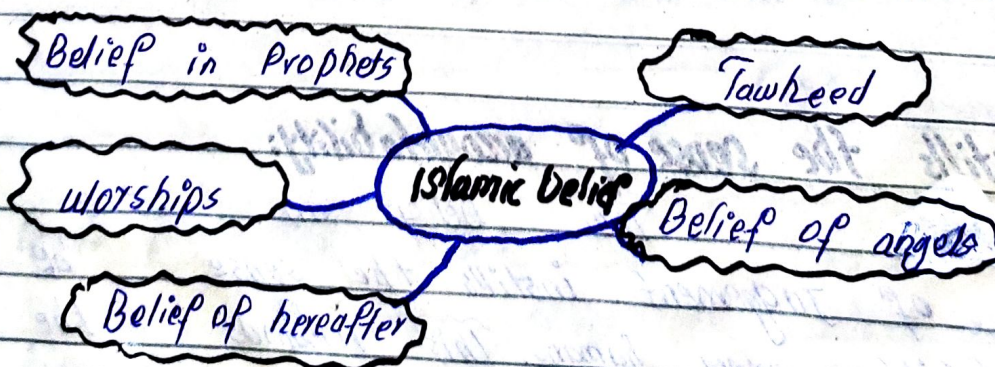

Batch: 59156

Q NO. 2

1. Introduction:

Belief in the day of Judgement refers to the life hereafter. According to Hamidullah, an author of "Introduction to Islam" that belief in the day of Judgement regulates the lives of humans. The belief in the day of Judgement effects on individuals and collective lives of humans. The belief in the day of Judgement instills sense of self, cooperation among society, equality, justice, accountability, eliminate evils and immorality, co-existence so on and so forth.

2. Islamic beliefs:

3. understanding belief in the day of judgement:

According to Sahabih Noman
an author of Seerat - E- Nabvi (PBUH), Allah has created humans to live lives according to the hood map which Prophet (PBUH) showed.
One day ~~over~~ everyone will meet Lord where he or she will be asked about good or bad deeds.

4. Importance of the belief in the day of judgement:

The belief on the day of judgement has profound importance. It shapes the lives of individuals. This pushes the individuals towards right directions.

"The life after death is better life"
(Al Quran)

5. The effects of belief in the day of judgement on individual and collective lives of humans:

1. Instills the sense of accountability:

The belief on the day of judgement instills the sense of accountability among humans. This reminds the humans that they will be asked about their deeds on the day of judgement.

"Whoever does an atom's weight of evil will see it, whoever does an atom's of good will see it"

(Al Quran)

2. Establishes the sense of respect:

Belief on the day of judgement establishes the sense of respect. This enables the humans to respect one another because Allah will ask everyone about respect.

3. Instills the sense of equality:

The ideology of belief on the day of judgement instills the sense of equality among humans. This reminds the humans that everyone is equal in the sight of Allah.

"The nearest is the one who is more pious"

(Al - Quran)

4. Leads purposeful life:

The belief on the day of judgement leads purposeful life. This instills the concept that Allah has created individuals for the purpose.

6. Eliminates evil from society:

According to Dr. Hamidullah, the elimination of evils in the society will be vanished through the concept of Islamic beliefs. Undoubtedly, the belief on the day of judgement will remind individuals the day of judgement. Thus, this concept eliminates evils from society.

6. Promotion of Co-operation among society:

Belief on Akhirah promotes co-operation in society. Individuals keeping the day of judgement before them assist the people. They assist the people for the purpose of reward which Allah will give on the day of judgement.

"Muslims are but one community"
(Quran)

7. Instills the concept of justice:

Undoubtedly, the concept of believing on the day of judgement can promote justice among the masses. This will enable the humans to be just because Allah will ask about the deeds.

"Muslims are best known for justice"

(Syed Amer Ali)

8. Eliminates discrimination:

The discrimination among humans is being eliminated through the fear of a day of judgement. According to Syed Amer Ali's book "The Spirit of Islam" Muslim societies in every era eliminate discrimination through the principles of Islam.

6. Critical analysis:

The concept of Akhirah (day of judgement) shapes lives of humans. This enables humans to live according to the guidance and teachings of holy prophet (PBUH). This is the most tremendous gifts of Islam which shows right way to humans. Thus, the belief on the day of judgement shapes human lives.

7. Conclusion:

In short, the belief on the day of judgement not only shows right way to humans but also stops humans from wrongdoings. This assists the humans to clean the sins while remembering the hardest day of judgement. Thus, the day of judgement tremendously affects humans lives.

Eliminates discrimination:

Critical analysis:

Conclusion: