

Title

Manto on harsh realities of Society.

The author is of the view that despite being questioned, Manto continued to highlight the bitter realities of the social hierarchy. His works analyze the mysteries of sex, however, they were free from vulgarity. Manto ~~was~~ as a realist was aware of the big gap between appearance and reality. For this, he had adopted a balanced approach in highlighting the issues related to sex. For Manto, human is a blend of both: angel and devil. Duality of man at different levels in society worried him. His writings portrayed personal growth to which one could relate.

Word count = almost 105