

English Comprehension = 2

Q1: What is the difference between human beings' fear of death and children's fear of darkness.

The difference between human beings' fear of death and children's fear of darkness is of tales associated with them. Human beings fear death because of experience described by monks of pain of dying man.

Q2: What are the painful experiences described by the monks in their books?

Monks in their books have described extremely painful experiences which they got by imposing physical tortures on themselves for self purification, navigation, redemption & salvation.

Q3: What is religious and sacred view of death?

The religious perspective of death is of a penalty of wrong doings or pass into eternal life.

Q4: What are views of Seneca about death?

The views on death of Seneca, the Roman philosopher that the situations and conditions of funerals are more terrifying than the death itself.

Q5: What are the facts that make death more horrible than it would be otherwise?

Death seems more terrifying because of the sufferings of dying man, such as his/her moaning, seizures and colourless face.