

Essay: Women empowerment is a tool of progress

Outline

1 Introduction

Thesis Statement: Undoubtedly, women empowerment is a prerequisite tool of progress for each and every nation. Without women's empowerment, the nation remains unable to achieve a nation is unable to achieve its economic, political and social aims. It can be further improved with promoting conducive environment

2 How Women empowerment is a tool of progress?

2.1- Economic Progress

- i- Women empowerment largely contributes in growing Gross Domestic Product (GDP) in a country

Case in point: Norway 47.1% China 41%

- ii- Women empowerment plays a significant role in decreasing economic dependency of women.
- iii- It can contribute in workforce by reducing labour shortages.

2-2: Political Progress

- i- Women empowerment is a big sign of potential democratic process.
- ii- Women can participate in decision making.
- iii- Women empowerment can further exacerbate hope justice.

2.3: Social Progress

i. Women empowerment creates well educated society

Case in point: Rasul Pur Village 100% literacy rate

ii. It contributes in reducing poverty

iii. Women empowerment plays a crucial role in reducing sexual violence

2.4 - Cultural Progress

i. Women empowerment diminishes Patriarchal practices

ii. It eliminates traditional ~~ineq~~ discriminations against women

iii. Women empowerment brings new modern values in culture

3 How can women empowerment be improved in Pakistan?

plz focus on grammar

i. Pakistan has need to provide equality in all spheres of life (Article-25(2) Article 34)

ii)- Women empowerment can be further achieved through proper working of beneficial program (BISP)

iii- Pakistan has need to address root cause of women like providing all fundamental right

4. Conclusion.

"No country can truly flourish without the full participation of women."
- Michelle Obama

Women is a huge asset of society. Without women, it would be impossible for a man to come in the world and without man there would be impossible a society. Undoubtedly, women is a source of creation.

Historically, it faced numerous challenges from right to live, right to property and sexual violences as well.

Unfortunately, so many people are unaware of its potential. Some countries like Norway, China, Sweden, Denmark and Canada are reaping a lot of advantages through women empowerment. Undoubtedly, women is a prerequisite tool of progress.

"No country can truly flourish without the full participation of women."
- Michelle Obama

Women is a huge asset of society. Without women, it would be impossible for a man to come in the world and without man there would be impossible a society. Undoubtedly, women is a source of creation.

Historically, it faced numerous challenges from right to live, right to property and sexual violence as well.

Unfortunately, so many people are unaware of its potential. Some countries like Norway, China, Sweden, Denmark and Canada are receiving a lot of advantages through women empowerment. Undoubtedly, women is a prerequisite tool of progress.

for each and every nation.

Without women's empowerment a nation is unable to achieve its economic, political and cultural aims. It can be further improved with promoting conducive environment.

This essay will highlight all aspects of progress like economic, political and cultural as well.

Examining the progress through women empowerment, the discussion will turn into remedies. The question is that how Pakistan can translate, vision of empowerment of women, into reality. What measures can be taken to address hindrances on the path of women empowerment.