

The economic prosperity of a country is proportional to its literacy rate.

I

Introduction.

II

Determinants of economic prosperity of a country

III

Prime tenets of a high literacy rate.

IV

How can a high literacy rate ensure economic prosperity

a. Skilled & qualified labour increase innovation, productivity and quality.

b. Technologically advanced products and services broaden the export sector.

c. A more robust infrastructure contributing to the GDP.

d. A more effective disaster management system, reducing economic losses.

e. Better policy making, incorporating educated and well aware perspectives for economic growth.

f. Increase in the civic sense of the society.

g. Improvement in the relations with the neighbouring countries.

h. Exchange of skilled labour among nations.

i. Increase in the employment rate of the country, reducing the poverty.

j. Enhances the quality of health care facilities and well being.

k. Ensures a more gender inclusive and equitable society.

V.

Conclusion.

Advancement in Science & Technology is a gateway to Economic Prosperity

I. Introduction

II. What constitutes the economic prosperity of a country? Plz include some points in introduction too

III. How can advancement in Science and Technology lead to economic prosperity of a country?

- a. Enhance^{ment} the agricultural yield through the use of scientific methods
- b. Increase the capacity of a country to produce high quality products for export
- c. Surge the productivity of industries leading to GDP growth
- d. Deployment of better governance frameworks for robust economic policies
- e. Fostering innovation in the IT industry leading to high quality products and services
- f. Deployment of technology in non-traditional and traditional security frameworks
- g. Mechanization of existing industries to increase productivity
- h. Plz divide these into three components Advancement in the healthcare facilities, ensuring quality life for labourers
- i. Generation of employment opportunities and reduction of poverty.
- j. Stabilising the energy sector of the country through technology and reduce overreliance on imported fuel
- k. Increase in social inclusion leading to economic prosperity.

Critical Analysis

Conclusion.