The elder told that after the forest there is a mountain where that ~~such~~ ^{flowers} ~~sprouts~~ ^{blooms} ~~with~~ whose fragrance brings the lost sight of ~~eyes~~ ^{vision} ~~returns~~ but the mountain is too high and there are many cliffs on it, shrubs full of thorns and huge stones that block the way. To climb this mountain many people came and went, but no any such individual came who could have reached to flower. May be that is why there is sorrow and pain in world, and man is in search of light.
