

I Introduction

II Constructive Youth engagement involves diverse Representation, ensuring equal opportunities for all Youth

III The Role of Youth in Socio-economic Growth.

A) Economic level.

- a) Economic growth through entrepreneurship and innovation
- b) Enhancing productivity in the workforce
- c) Youth as innovators and Entrepreneurs.

B) At Social level.

- a) Social cohesion and political stability.
- b) Promotion of inclusive development and equality.
- c) Civic Participation and Community Engagement

C) At Personal level

- a) Development of skilled labor and reduced unemployment.
- b) Confidence Building and Personal growth.
- c) Empowerment of youth as a vital human resources.

IV Demerits of Youth Disengagement

- a) Unemployment and Economic instability
- b) Increased crime rates and social unrest.
- c) Loss of Potential talent
- d) political extremism and radicalization.

V Hurdles in Constructive Youth engagement:

- A) Lack of access to quality education and training
- B) Limited opportunities for economic participation.
- C) Social and Cultural Barriers.

VI Suggestions for enhancing Youth engagement:

- A) Improving access to education and training
- B) Addressing Socio-economic inequalities
- C) Youth-friendly policies and political representation.

VII Conclusion.

Arguments should be more specific and clear