Date 13-10-2024 Envisonmental Science (CSS-2016) What are the Salient features of the Environmental Policy of Pakistan? Discuss if partiment lows and institutions are existence and justifiably effective (20) 1. 1 Introduction : The Environmental policy of Pokiston is a 2 comprehensive framework aimed at addressing 2 The Country's environment challenges while planating 1 sustainable development. It is formulated to 0 conserve naturall desources, mitigote pollution and manage the impacts of climate change the policy 7 emphasizes à balanced approach to economic growth 2 and environmental protection. Despite the presence Ĵ of vasious environmental four and infortutions, 1 the effectiveness of these formewooks remains D a subject of debates, primarly due to D Challenges in implementation and enforcement. This response will examine the sale to features -0 -3 of the policy and assess the effectiveness of existing laws and institutions. ---

Date I. Splient Features of the Environmental Policy of Pakistan: 1. Sustainable Development: Sustainable development refers to a growth model that meets the needs of the present -9 3 without compromising the ability of future F generations 170 meet their own needs. It -1 Emphasizes a balance between economic growth, X Environmental protection and social-well being 7 F Development that meets the needs of the F Present without compromising the ability of future generations to melet their own needs. (Bridland Report, 1987) T T T 2- Biodiversity Conservation: T Biodivessity Consesuation involves protecting and managing divesse ecosystems, species and genetic resources to ensure their survival It aims to maintain the balance of nature, Supporting ecological health and human well-being -1-The diversity of life on East is evential to the health of our planet and surviva of our species" (F.O Wilson) de.

SOLO

Date 3. Air and water Pollution Control: His and water pollution control involves measures to reduce contaminants released into the environment aining to improve air and water quality. It focuses on regulating lemissions, promoting cleaners technologies and ensuing public health and ecosystem safety. Air Pollution is responsible to abound 7 million premature deaths each year maibly due to respiratory and cardiovascular diseases" woold meath Organization (WHO) 4. Waste Management: and disposal of waste to minimize its impact on the environment. It emphasizes decycling, composing and waste-to-energy solutions to promote sustainability and reduce landfill use The waste of Plenty is the Sesource of Scarity (Thomas Love Percock

Date 5. Climate Change mitigation: Climate change mitigation referres to efforts =7 aimed at seducing greenhouse gas emissions and enhancing Carbon sinks to pimit global -1 warming. Strategies include transioning 3 deneurleble energy, increasing energy efficiency and promoting sustainable land use practice 3 The climate crisis is not a political issue, 7 it is a moral and spiritual challenge 7 to all of humanity Pope Francis 7 7 6. Environmental Import Assessment (LIA): Environmental Impart Assessment (EIA) is a process that evoluates the potential environmental effects of a proposed project or action before it is carried T out_ it aims to inform devision-makers and the public, ensuing that environmental considerations are integrated into the planning and development Process. Over 100 Countries have implemented EIA legislation, decognizing its importance in Sustainable development and environmental Destection" SOLO

TAKICIA Date II. Destinent Lows and Institutions: A. Laws: i- Pakistan Environmental Protation Act (PEPA) 1997: This act is the primary legal fromework for environmental protection establishing regulations for pollution control, waste management and 3 2 1 envisionmental assessments. 3 ii- National Climate Change Policy (2012): It aims to address the climate change -0000 Through adaptation and mitigation stategies Pakistan Environmental Protection Cancil: 111-Pakistan Envisonmental Protection Courcil 2 established under PEPA act to formulate and implement national environmental policies, 5 5 T B. Institutions: T Ministry of Climite Change (Mocc): F It is responsible for policy-making in rementing climate action plans and coordinating with provincial department F P

Date b. Environmental Protection Agencies (EPAs) : It is provisial EPA: oversee the enforcement of environmental regulations at the local level. C. Pakiston Courcil of Research in Water Resources: PCRWR is a government agencies dedicated to sustainable water management and besearch to address water scarcity and quality challenges in Pakistan. PCRWR was established in 1964 & address The growing concerns over with resource management in Pakiston" TI Effectiveness of the Pakistan Council of Research in Woter Resources: The Framework has contributed to increase of awarnéss about environmental issues. Some Progress has been made in renewable 11energy l'projects, afforsestation and pollution Control initiatives

Date

Weak Enforcement Lack of Implementation Faced by Challenger CRWR Climate Vulnesobility Political and Economic Constraints

Date on lusion: The Environmental Policy of Pakistan Presents a comprehensive approach to addressing environmental issues. However, the effectiveness of these lows and institutions is limited add analysis as well enforcement, resource constraints and insuffre sentposeducter pration. To streng thening institutional things in a protound manner ensuring strict adherence to regulations are essential for achieving sustain able development. goals