

Write a comprehensive note on Zakat system of Islam and its spiritual, moral and social impacts.

Zakat

Start with the summary of the answer as introduction

Zakat stands as a timeless and powerful practice in Islam. Its spiritual significance lies in its ability to purify wealth, promote empathy and obedience to God. At the same time, it carries a profound social impact, leading to reduction of class differences and alleviating financial hardship.

Meaning of Zakat:

The term Zakat is derived from the Arabic root "z-k-a" which means to "purify" or to "make pure". It is a form of almsgiving. It is mandatory for Muslims who meet certain criteria to give a portion of their wealth as Zakat to those in need. It is one of the five pillars in Islam and was made obligatory in 2AH.

Difference between Zakat and Sadagah:

Zakat is obligatory whereas Sadagah is a voluntary form of charity.

Importance of Zakat:

The act of giving Zakat purifies one's wealth and income. It reminds Muslims that their material possessions are blessings from Allah. By requiring those with excess wealth to give a portion of it to those in need, it helps create a more equitable economic system.

Try to add the Arabic of Surah Hajj Verse 22: quranic ayats

“They are those who, if established in the land by Us, would perform prayer, pay alms-tax, encourage what is good, and forbid what is evil. And with Allah rests the outcome of all affairs.”

Hadith Sahih Bukhari:

“Giving Zakat is more beloved to Allah than giving in charity during the entire year.”

Conditions for Zakat:

Zakat is obligatory for people who are:

- Muslim
 - Adult
 - Sane
 - Free: slaves are not obliged to pay Zakat.
