

Women face on the living side in professional life

In 21st century there are many significant advancements occur. ~~Gender equality has become norm of day~~

~~gender inequalities. Unfortunately women still face barrier in professional life. Some people have conservative minds who think that women are born to ~~remain in the house~~ stay~~

~~at home. This is the biggest problem that ~~we face. Other problems that~~~~

~~they face are gender pay gap, sexual harrasment at workplaces, discrimination, political barrier and no training systems~~

~~or programs are available for women who help them in understanding the administrative syst.~~

~~Education is a basic need for everyone but women are still negligible and developing countries, educated women~~

~~It is very important for a women to be educated in this developing country.~~

Women want to stand on her own foot. They do not want to be dependent on anyone else. ~~but gender inequalities do not allow them to do so.~~ However, Government should try to remove the gender gap by establishing the policies, programs and training systems, especially in professional life. ~~Education should be compulsory for both men and women.~~

Write sentence subject verb object
 Government should provide equal rights in political departments. ~~Not only government but also citizens understand the importance of working lady by removing the old concepts.~~ Government and citizens both <sup>should</sup> provide such platform <sup>or environment</sup> where women work without inequalities which help them for making a progressive country.