Title: <sup>cc</sup> My Grandfather's Path: A Palestinian's Documentary

Nizar Hassan was a famous Palestinian documentary maker. He made a beautiful documentary named 'My Grandfather's Path'. In this documentary, he presented the absurdity of Israeli notion of their independence, how they snatched the land of Palestine and called it their independence. The writer believes that one should choose ~~his~~<sup>one's</sup> enemy wisely and also warns audience to never fall into the traps, which ~~make~~<sup>make</sup> you end up like your enemy. One should never ~~forget~~<sup>forget</sup> his/her aspirations and aims in life in the process of opposing and hating Zionist settler colonialists. The Palestinian cinema and art, just like Nizar Hassan's documentary, have constantly saved ~~the~~<sup>the</sup> writer from that trap. ~~My~~<sup>My</sup> The documentary was also ~~published~~<sup>published</sup> broadcasted on Al Jazeera Arabic.
