Q

Explain the doctrine of Prophethood and its importance in human life?

INTRODUCTION:

The doctrine of prophethood is the belief on prophets which Allah has sent for the guidance of humanity. In Quran Allah says that he has sent one prophet to each nation, but there is one weak hadith in which it is mentioned that 124,000 prophets were sent by Allah. On only four prophets holy books were revealed by Allah. Those four are Hazrat Musa (AS), Hazrat Dawood (AS), Hazrat Issa (AS) and Hazrat Muhammad (PBUH). Holy Prophet (PBUH) is the last prophet sent by Allah. In Quran Allah says that Muhammad is his last prophet and no prophet will come after him. There
