

Digital Democracy, Social Media and Political Participation.

- ① Introduction
- ② Digital platform empowers citizens with direct line to policymakers
- ③ Digital democracy foster a vibrant online community.
- ④ Digital platform serve as a treasure trove of educational Resources.
- ⑤ Social media's bridge between public and policymakers
- ⑥ Spread of misinformation can counter easily through media.
- ⑦ Transparency and privacy remain a delicate task.

8) Increasing civic engagement for access to information on social media platform greatly influencing public opinion:-

- Case Study:- According to the PEW Research Center "74% of the adults in the US who use social media platform gets news from them" highlighting the role of social media in disseminating news

disseminating information

- Promoting awareness among the masses of the achievements of basic human rights

a) Critical Analysis

b) Conclusion.

-
Deconstruct the topic properly.
Focus on your presentation.
Improve your writing further.