

NAME Zahid Hussain

Paper Pak Affairs

BATCH Online

Test Test (IV)

Question No # 01

The role of reformist
movements: Sheikh Ahmed
Sarhindi, Shah Waliullah,
The Aligarh movements
in shaping of the ideology
of Pakistan.

1 Introduction

Islam is still alive
in the world, especially
in the shape of ideology
of Pakistan in the same
spirit because the reformists left no stone unturned to keep Islam priority. Dr - Hamidullah.

There is no denying the fact
that reformists were leaving no
stone unturned to keep the spirit of Islam in their priority since Akbar's concept of Deen-e-Illai in 1582 and that movement of Islam was manipulated. From that turning point brought the change of the Two Nation Theory - definitely, Sheikh Ahmed Raza Khan played the vital role in order to build the specific ideology on the name of Islam. Subsequently, Shah-Waliullah and then Sir Syed Ahmed Khan shaped this ideology in the Islamic-Nation State system.

(a) The Reformatist Movements of Sheikh Ahmed Raza Khan

Life-Sketch

↓ Born	↓ Motive	↓ Result-
15th century in the era of Akbar	To challenge the Deen-e- Illai - the mixture of religion	Accept the demand and brought the real shape of

1. ~~What~~ the concept of Deen-e-Illai -
In era of Akbar.

"Islam is the religion of peace so Allah has created in the one spirituality and mixture of other religion - break down of the Islamic values with Hinduism and Christianity" - Sarhindi

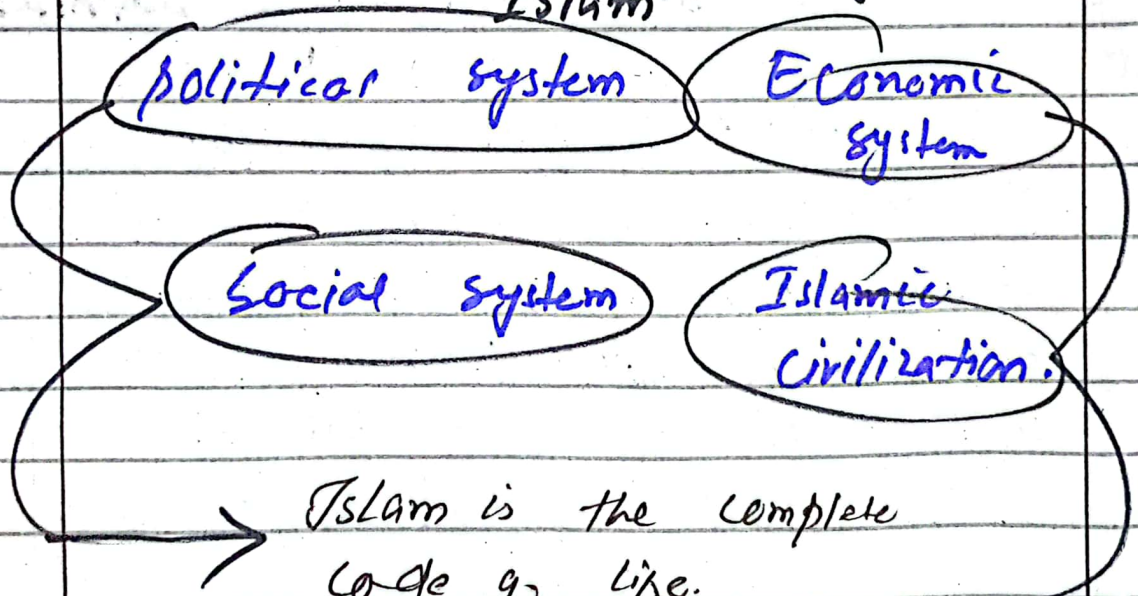

Deen-e-Illai was made by Akbar to combine the unity of all other religions, maintaining the sense of brotherhood and sustaining law and order. The main purpose was to be loyal with Akbar.

2) The stance of Sarhindi - The prominent Muslim - to give the concept of two-Nation theory.

The main and first Muslim scholars rejected it and challenged this concept of this Deen. He Spelt out that this concept of Deen deviated the true Islamic values, Norms, Culture, prohibition of Haram things. Unfortunately, he manipulated the direction of Islam. He gave the foundation of Two-Nation theory.

Two Nation Theory Islam

Islam is the complete code of life.
Wahdaniyat - al-Wajid.

3. The foundation of Islamic values in the true sense. Aurangzeb's era.

After a long period of imprisonment, the true sense of Islamic values were implemented and was clarified the specific ideology in the world.

(3) Shah Waliullah: The prominent Scholar - The reformist Steps.

Life sketch

BORN	Motive	Achievements
1703. The 17th century.	to bring the credibility of Muslim in the shape of Islam	Awareness political social Economic Moral struggles

→ Struggles of Shah Waliullah: Qutubuddin

1. Political and Social Struggle of Qutubuddin - Shah Waliullah

Shah Waliullah was the prominent struggler who tried to bring the status of Muslims in the world.

After the fall of Mughal empire, the struggle for revival took place. He gave awareness to all Muslims to write the books and social services as well. He delivered the real message of Quran and translated Quran in Persian and every could understand it and followed the message of Allah.

2. Economic and Moral Struggle for Revival of Muslims.

He proposed the best economic system for Muslim growth through Miana-Ravi in which he talked about agriculture and trade bar.

the financial development. Along with it, he said morality is the best weapon to win the heart of thousand.

3) Aligarh Movement: The prominent and modern scholar of Islam.

life sketch

Birth

17th century

Motive

to bring the muslims on the right paths on the shape of Quran

Achievement

Education
political platform
Morality
Modernization.

Educational Achievements of Sir Syed Ahmed Khan.

* Scientific Society for learning the english literature
This Scientific Society brought (1860) the huge impacts on the Human intellectual approach.

→ Along with MAO colleges, Tehreek-e-Ichlag and written book - Khutob-e-Muhammed are these steps were taking for carrying out the modernization among muslim

✓ The positive role between Muslims and British: the source of the written book Causes of Indian Revolt -

This step was the game changing for muslims. Especially in that period when war of Independence was waged. It clarified the misconception.

✓ All the struggles brought the sense of the ideology of Pakistan. The platform of All-India Muslim League.

This achievement of Muslim political platform was

The reason of the muslim reformists who left no stone unturned to make muslim identity from all the regions. This role of the political parties shaped the state of Pakistan. Tarek to Pakistan.

Conclusion.

Pakistan is blessed to have those blessed leaders who found Pakistan in 15th centuries to 1947. Ayesha Jalal

All the political, social, moral and economic reformists shaped the ideology of Pakistan by giving their precious lives. They played the vital role in the separation of Islam from other religions.
