

Thesis Statements

1. Pathways to Pakistan's Prosperity

Pakistan as a nation has been grappling with many challenges in various fields. Yet there are some pathways which can lead Pakistan on the way of progress. However, a strong will and determination is need of the hour.

2. BRICS and Pakistan: Prospects of Recovery

BRICS can play an important role in the progress of Pakistan. If Pakistan becomes a member of BRICS, it will boost up economy of Pakistan and put Pakistan on the way of development.

3. Hope: the greatest driving force

It is the hope that keeps a nation and man alive. Hope works as a dominant factor in individual and nation to work with determination and resilience to achieve certain goals. It also prepares them to tackle with adversity.

4. Inflation: A result of poor economic policies or a part of global economic woes

Inflation is a result of poor economic policies. Inflation hinders the progress of the country. Until economic policies are not made properly, the problem of inflation can not be resolved.

5. Man is born free but everywhere he is in chains

God has created a man free from all chains. But in today's world, it is only utopic. The chains of social, mental, economic and religion have bound a man.

3.5

6. People have become overly dependent on technology

People of present times are overwhelmingly dependent on technology. There are some fields in which technology seems to be dominant like agriculture, energy field, education, healthcare and finance.

7. How is terrorism and its perception shaped by the Mass Media?

Mass Media has an important role in terrorism and its perception. It is the Mass Media which has broaden terrorism and its perception all over the world. Mass Media has shaped terrorism and its perception as it wants.

8. Pros and Cons of Globalization

Globalization has put the world on a new track. It has both pros and cons in itself. As globalization has given benefits to the world, it has also done harm to it.

9. "I fall upon the thorns of life,
I bleed."

Life is full of challenges and hardships. Whenever a man passes through the difficulties of life, it proves to be a test to him. Life is a long test which starts from birth and ends to death.

10. Universal human equality is utopic.

Universal human equality is utopic. There is not a single place in the world where human equality is shown. Instead of presence of top human organizations, there is still human inequality in the world.