

1. Introduction

2. Arenas in which Pakistan needs prosperity

3. How Pakistan can embark on the pathway of economic prosperity?

a) Practice massive industrialization and import substitution to reduce the current account deficit, which will embark Pakistan on the pathway of economic prosperity.

b) Giving lucrative exchange rates, low tax cuts on remittances to incentivize remittances, which will embark Pakistan on pathway of economic prosperity.

c) Reduction of civil government expenditure by reducing the number of ministries (federal) according to eighteenth amendment will reduce the fiscal account deficit and will embark Pakistan on the pathway of economic prosperity.

d) Instituting self contributory Pension Fund will reduce the pressure on the fiscal account and will embark Pakistan on pathway of economic prosperity.

e) Sensible allocation of subsidies will optimize the economic growth and will embark Pakistan on the pathway of economic prosperity.

f) Capitalizing on the area of relative and competitive advantage (Textile Industry and Beef Industry) will embark Pakistan the pathway of economic prosperity.

4. How Pakistan can embark on the pathway of social prosperity?

a) Pursuing a steadfast and resilient policy to combat the security issues i.e rising insurgency, will embark Pakistan on the pathway of social prosperity.

b) Mitigating the gender gap by practicing gender budgeting and gender mainstreaming will embark Pakistan on the pathway of social prosperity.

c) Uplifting the underdeveloped provinces will mitigate the concerns of marginalized community and will embark Pakistan on the pathway of social prosperity.

5. How Pakistan can embark on the pathway of political prosperity?

a) Devolution of power to local government in true letter and spirit will mitigate the issues of general public and will embark Pakistan on the pathway of political prosperity

b) Implementation of charter of democracy in true letter and spirit will embark Pakistan on the pathway of political prosperity

c) Avoiding intense rhetorics against opposite political parties will institute a collaborative environment and will embark

Pakistan on the pathway of political prosperity.

6. How Pakistan can embark on the pathway of prosperity in the arena of governance?

a) Adopting proactive approach in governance instead of reactionary / ad-hoc approach can embark Pakistan on the pathway of prosperity in arena of governance.

b) Ensuring policy continuation will lead Pakistan to pathway of prosperity in arena of governance.

7. Conclusion.