

Human Development and Economic Sustainability

Outline

1) Introduction-

Thesis statement:- Human development and economic sustainability share a symbiotic relationship with each other. One can not exist without the other. Economic sustainability must be required for development in every country.

2) Correlation between human development and economic sustainability-

2.1) Understand Human Development:-

a) Education

b) Health

c) Equality

2.2) Economic sustainability-

a) living standards

b) income opportunities

c) production of goods

d) Per capita income

3) How does human development breed economic sustainability:-

- a) good governance improves standard of living.
- b) Political stability improves continued growth.
- c) Access to food and water play role in industrialization
- d) gender-inclusive development also increases economic sustainability

4) Factors preventing both development and sustainability's role:-

- a) higher human development (ukraine crisis, current trade between China and U.S)
- b) Politicisation of other developments over Human Development
- c) Global challenges
- d) Terrorism handicaps economic opportunities.

5) Steps to ensure economic sustainability:-

- a) system of check and balance
- b) provision of immunity to global human development.
- c) Application of UN's ~~SG~~ SDGs
- d) enhance dialogue and arbitration for global peace.

6) Conclusion