"Reading Comprehension"

(1)

Most of us fail in our efforts for self-improvement because our schedules are very ambitious and time consuming. When we make different schemes, we are very passionate to fulfill it. But after sometime, we have no appropriate time to apply these schemes in our daily life. So, we could not follow it.

(2)

Because, when we announce our resolution to everybody, it looks like silly. After sometime, when we do not follow our schemes and start to follow our previous routine. Then, people asked about that scheme which we made, and it's ~~was~~ very embarrassing moment for us. That's why, it is a basic mistake to announce our resolution to everybody.

(3)

The writer does not want to announce his resolution on First day of New Year. But on the second, he applied his scheme and started to follow it. He maintained his discipline and started exercise and morning walk without announcement.
