

Topic: Women remain on the losing side in professional life.

Outline:

1. Introduction:

Thesis Statement: Women's professional progress is marked by both achievements and ongoing challenges. However, in particular, women remain on the losing side in professional life. Progress has been made, but women still face significant barriers in professional life.

2. The relationship between gender and career advancement.

3. Women remain on losing side in professional life. (Thesis).

a. Women are expected to prioritize family over career.

b. Women lack equal representation and opportunities in political system.

c. Women are paid less than men even in same workplace.

d. Gender-based discrimination is widespread issue in the world.

e. Limited exposure of women in STEM education.

4. Women make significant progress in professional life. (Anti-Thesis).

a. Societal norms are shifting to support women's ability to balance career and family.

- b. Despite disparities, women are playing roles of leadership in many countries
- c. Many women in the world are running top businesses.
- d. Aurat March promotes gender equality and challenges societal attitudes.
- e. Personal interests and preferences play a significant role in career choices.

5. Progress has been made, but women still face significant barriers in professional life. (Synthesis)

- a. Traditional expectations still pressure women to prioritize family, hindering their career advancement.
- b. Only in developed countries women enjoy political rights, women from developing countries still facing barriers.
- c. Middle or lower class women are still hindered to enter workplace.
- d. Due to domestic violence, many women are not even allowed to participate in Aurat March.
- e. Systematic barriers, ~~are~~ ^{not} just personal interest, limit women's STEM participation.

6. Conclusion.