

Identity Crises

Tom and Jerry has been a famous cartoon show watched by millions of people. One of its episodes shows a duckling resides with Jerry and ultimately follows his way of swimming. Though, ~~the~~ duck's community crosses water differently. This is how identity crises looks like. Pakistan is an Islamic ideology based country. Ridiculously, the roots of ideology has been forgotten. Muslim state was achieved by Quaid-e-Azam because Hindus ~~were~~ became a threat to Muslim identity. Their livinghood and rituals were way more different. Currently, the Muslim ideology is still facing threat. The sectarian divide is a termite for Islamic principles. Ottoman empire fell due to Shia-Islam & Sunni Islam. Iran and Saudi Arabia, the largest Muslim Oil ~~supplier~~ producers are fighting due to sectarianism. Prophet (S.A.W) preached Islam with peace. His (S.A.W) message was simple and clear. His life has been idealized by many famous personalities of 18th and 19th century. Believing Prophet (S.A.W)'s teaching is the condition of entering Islam. He (S.A.W) never spoke about division. Even Surah-Inam and Surah Al-Imran of Quran deny the sectarian divide. This sectarian innovation has made the Muslims to lose their identity. Muslims have forgotten their glorious era where peace were prevailing. Its possible reason can be ~~the~~ ~~an~~ individuals, not learning Islam directly. The interwaving of culture with Islam have pernicious impact. Analysis of situation anticipates that the real teachings of Islam needs to be imparted while started from gram root level.

Keeping in mind that Islam do not solely revolve around Jihad Pakistan has been facing the consequences of biased teaching. Therefore, it is time to open eyes and minds. A revolution is bloody while evolution takes almost 20 years. So, the suitable one is evolution. Politicians needs to stop playing religious cards for their personal interest. A strict heedful authority is needed for such evolution. Unfortunately, many articles have been published to highlight this issue but these have become limited to competitive exams preparation tool. Bangladesh's students fight for their rights. They do not rely on articles in national newspaper. Peaceful protest is the right of individuals residing in a country. Sometimes, it seems totally dark with no way out that Muslims are loosing their identity and drowning in western agenda. But Quran also says that Allah does not change the condition of a person unless he changes himself. Thus, the only thing can be done is to sow the seed and wait for reaping time.
