

4:01 pm

Name Zahid Hussain

Date 21st/sep/21

Batch Online

Question No # 02

Describe the main activities that take place during the Spring Awakening festival.

Ans:

The main activities that take place during the Spring Awakening are that villagers ^{women} decorate their shelters with the shining flowers and colorful ribbons. The air would be replete with aroma of freshly baked bread and pies. The important highlight of the festival was that the annual flower parade, and children eagerly participate in all the activities.

Question No # 03

What challenges has the festival "Spring Awakening" faced in the recent years and how is the ~~struggle~~ the village council addressing these challenges.

Ans: The spring New Year festival has faced the many challenges in the recent years. In which with rise of technology and busy lifestyles, fewer people were able to attend this event and participate in it. As far as the role of council is concerned, the village council had been working hard to resolve the problems. They introduced social media campaign and engaged local businesses to sponsor various events.

Question No # 07

How does the passage illustrate the importance of traditional festival ~~as~~ in the village of Everygreen?

Ans: The passage illustrates the importance of tradition in village of Everygreen. The tradition is the people's beauty and their culture in the modern period of time. This tradition makes the fresh movement in the such a way, as the best examples have been defined in the passage. the best examples of the tradition were a bake-off, fates a best-dressed pet contest.

Question No. 04

Discuss the impact of modern technology on traditional festival as implied in the passage. What measures are being taken to counteract ^{all} this impact.

This huge impact of the modern technology is the busy lifestyles of people who are forgetting their importance of the festivals. They ^{are} busy in the technology that it makes them bound to attach with people through the social media and technology. They can be reformed and brought-them back by providing historical books and documentary related to festivals how people were easy with the traditional lifestyle.

① "Corrections"

- ① The festival, known as the Spring Awakening, had been a tradition for over century.
- ② Villagers would decorate their homes with vibrant flowers and colorful ribbons.
- ③ One of the highlights of the festival was the annual flower parade, where villagers dressed in costumes made entirely from flowers and marched through streets.
- ④ Despite its charm, the festival faced challenges in recent years due to the rise of modern

Technology

⑤ The village council had been working hard to rejuvenate the festival, introducing social media campaigns and engaging local businesses to sponsor various activities.

⑥ Punctuate the following passage

The little girl ^{ran} to the park; she was so excited to see her friends. They had planned to play on the swings and have a picnic later; however, when she arrived at the park, it started raining. The girl was disappointed, but she waited ~~arrived~~ under a big tree, hoping the rain would stop soon.