

"How Mass media spreads immorality"

Outlines

Introduction: Malcom X said: "The media is the most powerful entity on the earth. They have the power to make the innocent guilty and to make the guilty innocent, and that's power. Because they control the minds of the masses."

General statement

Thesis statement: Mass media spreads immorality as it encourages materialism, encourage unhealthy beauty standards, normalizes harmful stereotypes, encourages violence, promotes unrealistic expectations.

① Main body..

Mass media encourages materialism.

- associate happiness with material possession.
- shows the luxurious life of celebrities.
- Advertise the expensive products.

② Encourages unhealthy body images

- unrealistic beauty standards.
- Objectification.
- Body shame and bullying
- Emphasis on appearance

③ Normalizes Harmful stereotypes:

Exaggerating some cultures.
Negative portrayal of some community
Encouraging prejudice against some community.

④ Promotes unrealistic expectations

Flawless appearances of characters:

- Instant success.
- Super human activities.
- Materialistic focus.
- Fairy tale relationships
- Black and white characters

⑤ Encourages violence.

Violence as humor
Lack of consequences.
Promotion of aggression

Malcolm X said, "The media is the most powerful entity on the earth. They have the power to make the innocent guilty and to make the guilty innocent, and that's the power because they control the minds of masses. Mass media, with its pervasive influence and reach, plays a significant role in shaping societal values. However, it is criticized for spreading content that promotes unethical behaviour.

Mass media promotes immorality as it encourages materialism, encourages unhealthy beauty standards, normalizes harmful stereotypes, encourages violence and promotes unrealistic expectations.