

Neglect of enhancing intellectual ability in our education system

1. Introduction:

Thesis statement: In Pakistan, there is a neglect of enhancing intellectual ability in education system due to lack visionary policies and training. There are a number of repercussions of this neglect. However, by adopting practical measures intellectual ability in education system can be enhanced.

2. Current statistics of education sector of Pakistan

3. Why enhancing intellectual ability in education system is neglected?

(a) Lack of visionary educational policies

- (b) No proper training of teachers
- (c) less budget allocation for educational sector
- (d) Out-dated curriculum does not enhance intellectual ability
- (e) Lack of critical thinking skills
- (f) Advanced technology is not available
- (g) No research based learning in Pakistan

4. Repercussions of neglect of enhancing intellectual ability in education system

- (a) There is no political socialization
- (b) Unable to produce skilled labour
- (c) Decrease in foreign remittances
- (d) Economic stagnation in the country
- (e) social development<sup>is</sup> disrupted

- (f) Exams oriented learning is enhanced
- (g) Portrays weak image of country at international level
- (h) Foreign collaborations in educational sector are diminished

(5) Practical measures to enhance intellectual ability in our education system

- (a) By enhancing skills of teachers
- (b) By up-dating curriculum
- (c) By focusing on the critical thinking skills

6 Conclusion