The attacks by BLA (Balochistan Liberation Army) are highly ~~condemnable~~ ^{condemnable}. What should be the response of the government.

After the deadliest ~~attack~~ military operation under the command of President of Pakistan General Pervez Musharraf, the death of Nawab Akbar Bhuttani had happened. The momentum of Balochistan never gets back to its original position till date. The devastating attacks on six different locations by BLA are highly condemnable. Almost seventy people deprived their lives. Security check post ~~has been destroyed~~ ^{blown} by VNSAs. The unarmed civilians ~~have~~ ^{lost} hostilities were more than twenty-five. This was an attack on the sovereignty of an independent state. That outrage ^{can} clearly define as a terrorist attack. The state ^{should} must respond to that massacre, because it is all against the constitution of Islamic Republic of Pakistan. Pakistan as an independent sovereign state will have to deal with iron hand. It will have to use kinetic options against the terrorist, to protect its sovereignty, integrity, and life of its citizens. This attack was not just a terrorist attack, it fired up the another disastrous chain reaction - the ethnic divide. The brutal assassination of more than twenty five Punjabis was an act of fanning the ethnic divide. Pakistan as a state must ~~be~~ act as ~~more~~ cautious way, because it the question of Pakistan largest province by area and largest province in a population. The act of negotiation and complete attachment with the Baloch citizens and Punjabis will be important. On the other hand, the iron hand, and kinetic policy ~~must~~ ^{should} be endorsed on terrorist organisation and insurgents.
