

Date: _____

Notes

Precis 2021

Poetic Salvation: The Art of staying Some.

When the news of Israel encroaching more of Palestine's land gained steam, the writer received an email from Nizar Hussain.

The email contained a link to his new film—"My Grandfather's Path." Niaz Hussain, a designated

Palestine based film-maker, was born in 1960. After in Anthropology

graduating from Haifa University, he ended up in the film industry. His

Centre for Peace and Development Initiatives

Date: _____

Notes

masterpiece, "Independence", revolved around the hypocrisy of Israeli concept of Independence. For Israel, annexing land is independence. The writer notes that too much consumption of aggressiveness leads one to lose one's own values. The writer, thereby in an attempt to preserve his sanity, has sought refuge in arts and literature. Nizar Hussain's documentary "My Grandfather's Path"

Centre for Peace and Development Initiatives

Date: _____

Notes

is an epic depiction of the Palestinian cause that counters Israeli antagonism.

The writer reiterates that while ~~be~~ fighting monsters, one must not become a monster oneself.

Total words = 441

words written = 140.

Date: _____

Notes

2022 Translation

Every era brings unfavourable circumstances with it which despite not being required are ultimately accepted. Even today, the nature tests us by confronting us with things we neither relate to or concerns us yet we have to accept them. ~~and~~

The dawn of new century is always accompanied with unprecedented changes not ~~xxx~~ seen in the previous centuries. The development of natural sciences and arts ~~has~~ ~~and~~ ~~has~~ led

Centre for Peace and Development Initiatives

Date: _____

Notes

to what can be termed as 'trash'. This trash is the outcome of educational and economic activities.

Nature does bestows us with its fruits but at the same time restricts us to mindfully dispose of the peels, if not done so, fill in the surrounding ~~environment~~ will ~~would~~ increase.

Centre for Peace and Development Initiatives