

Comprehension 2020

Question No 1

Globalization is a process in which people from different countries, from different regions, are connected to each other. That shows the bond of political, cultural and economic.

QNO2

Electronic mass communication is a type of network that helps in connecting the people with each other and enhance the culture of globalization.

QNO3

Third World countries are those countries which are not developed. They are under the process of developing. Where resources are limited as compared to first World (US) and second World (USSR/Communism) countries.

QNO4

Privatization is the process of transferring ownership, management-run business or service to private entities, often to improve efficiency and reduce public sector.

QNO5

Liberalism is a political and social philosophy that emphasizes individual freedom, equality, democracy, and the protection of civil rights. It advocates for minimal government interference in personal liberties and the economy.