

"Boys will be boys"

- 1- Introduction
Prevalence of masculinity is a toxic and negative trait prevailed reigning our society for centuries. It has widened the gender-gap, destabilized the social fabric and created role differences therefore, fundamental revolutionary measures should be taken to eliminate this trait from society.
- 2- How this negative trait is prevalent in our society?
 - 2a- Entitled for higher education
 - 2b- Successors of family property
 - 2c- Greater political representation
 - 2d- Command high posts
 - 2e- Custodian of domestic affairs
- 3- The impact of this notion on society.
 - 3a- widened gender gap
 - 3b- Destruction of social fabric
 - 3c- Creation of role differences
 - 3d- Promotion of patriarchal structure
 - 3e- Unjustifiable distribution of resources
 - 3f- Marginalization of female gender
 - 3g- Unequal availability of Justice
 - 3h- Sense of inferiority complex among females
 - 3i- Enjoys greater economic independence

4- Revolutionary measures to bring a balance in society

4a- Providing equal representation to both genders

4b- Availability of equal economic chances

4c- Considering all genders' role crucial for prosperity

4d- Demolishing patriarchal structure from grassroots level

4e- Encouraging females for dynamic roles.

5- Conclusion

The masculine trait is a menace and challenge for development, yet it ^{can} be eliminated by organized and sincere measures.