

Day: _____

Date: _____

Topic: Corruption is the root cause of all social evils

Outline:

1- Introduction

Corruption is the root cause or not can be found out by a comprehensive analysis of different factors which contribute to it. Corruption stems from other roots rather than being at the centre of all.

By jolting and tightening the noose around different governmental institutions corruption can be curbed.

2- Menace of corruption

3- Corruption Stemming from other root causes

a. Lack of accountability

The probability of corruption occurring might increase where legal system is unable to provide sanctions for officials that engage in corruption

(UNODC)