

Precis: 2020

Title: Manto the Victim of Social Ambivalence

opponents/ Manto was a man of self obtuseness. His disfollowers displayed him as vulgar and also questioning the morality of his writing. But Manto remained determined and exploring the harsh realities of life. Freud considered that he has deep concern for social depressed classes of societies. Different levels of social hierarchy stressed him the most. Manto treated vulgarity in such a confidential way that it not seem in his writings.

OR Title: Different views about Manto