

Q) What is the difference between Deen and religion? Describe the importance of Deen in human life with arguments. (2016)

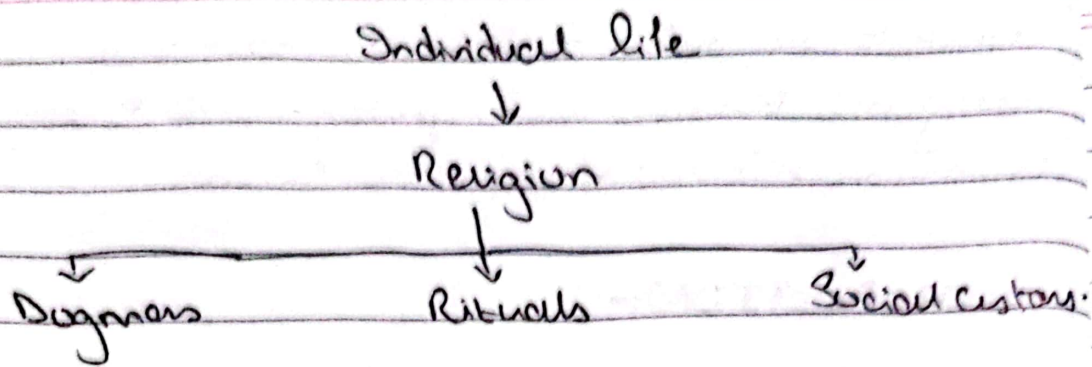

INTRODUCTION:-

Islam is not only a religion but also a Deen, which means a complete code of life.

Religion deals with man's relation with God whereas Deen deals with both aspects of man's relation with God and his fellow beings. Religion deals with sacred and spiritual covering the belief system, mode of worships and observance of certain social customs and rituals. However, Deen covers both sacred and secular aspects of man.

CONCEPT OF RELIGION:-

Word Religion or "mazhab" comes from root "Zahab" which means to go, pass by or walk. Literal meanings of religion are faith, belief and ceremonies. Religion is a bond between a religious devotee and his God. This devotion is all about ritual and faith. Whereas religion only deals with the individual life.

CONCEPT OF DEEN:-

whereas Deen is a complete system. In the context of Islam it means to accept absolute sovereignty of Allah. Deen deals with both man's relation with God as well as his fellow beings. A complete code of life with an applicable, social, economic, political and religious system. Deen is divine and dynamic as well. Islam is a deen, not merely a religion.

"Truly, the religion with Allah is Islam"

(Surah Al Imran; 19)

Try to add the Arabic of quranic ayats

DISTINCTION/DIFFERENTIATION BETWEEN RELIGION AND DEEN:

The words Deen and Religion are entirely different from each other with regard to their concepts. We generally refer to Islam as Madhab (Religion). whereas the word Madhab has never been used in the entire treasury of the Quranic text and Hadith literature. Instead the word that has almost always been used for Islam in the original sources is Deen.

"This day, I have perfected your Deen for you, completed my favor upon you and have chosen from you Islam as your Deen"

(Al-Maidah 5:3)

The fundamental difference between the Religion and Deen is, the word Religion is used for a set of beliefs and ritual of worship. whereas, Deen refers to an entire way of life that no matter

Attempt this part in detail by giving subheadings

all aspects of life.

The messenger of Allah said:

"When Allah wished good for someone, He bestowed upon him the understanding of Deen"

(Albukhari and Muslim)

ISLAM: A DIN OR A RELIGION:

Islam is not a Religion (madhab), because all of the elements of a madhab are certainly part and parcel of Islam. It includes the articles of beliefs, spirituality and the etiquettes of worship (Salaat, Saam, Zohrah and Hajj). Hence it would be more accurate to say Islam is not merely a madhab but an entire way of life (Deen). On the one hand, it prescribes for its followers to remember Allah, offer prayer, observe fasting, give zakat and on other hand it provides a complete constitution for the function of a state. It does not limit itself to the two extremes of individual and state; rather it also provides a perfect sample for societal conduct.

Religion → An Individual matter

Deen → A Collective matter

ISLAM IS A DEEN NOT JUST A RELIGION:-

As Deen is considered as a code of life, which ^{covers} describes all the aspects of our life. Islam has its own unique economic system which is neither capitalistic nor socialist. Unlike modern banking system which runs on interest based system, Islam promotes Sohabah. Islam also provides a detailed guidance guidelines on governance and administration. Islam gives a social system based on brotherhood. This shows that no other religion except Islam provide detailed guidelines on every problem aspect of the life. which conclude Islam is a complete religion (Deen).

"Unquestionably, for Allah is the pure religion"

(Surah Az-Zumar 39:3)

ISLAM VERSUS SECULARISM:

Secularist ideas convey that people of a state can worship and practice their religions but only in private which will have nothing to do with the affairs of a state. The political, economic and the constitution of a state will be based on the thoughts of current scholars and on the teaching of a particular religion. Whereas, Islam says that religion has a major part in both the individual and state. As we can see, Islam not only introduced a system of beliefs but with that it has introduced a whole new system of the political and economic system based on equality and more important equity.

"And fight until they are persecuted is no more and Deen is all for Allah"

(Al Baqarah 2:193)

DIFFERENCE BETWEEN DIN AND SHARIAH:

The meaning of ~~shariat~~ is a way and path. When one has accepted God as one's sovereign and accepted his servitude and also admitted that his messenger is sent for the guidance. After this, the mode in which ~~Islam~~ Muslim to serve God and the path he has chosen in order to obey him is called shariat. This path has been indicated by God through his messenger. The messenger shows us the path of righteousness and how to lead a life.

He it is who sent his messenger with the guidance and the Deen of truth, that He may cause it to prevail over all Deens however much

The idolaters may be averse"

(AI - Tawbah 9:33)

Deen always remain same, where Shariah can, many have cancelled several were changed regardless Deen never changed. The Deen of Noah was the same as that of Abraham, Moses, Jesus, and Muhammad (PBUH). but the some shariahs of these prophets varied from each other to some extent. The modes of saying prayer, observing fast were at one hand with one prophet and another hand with the other. Rules of cleanliness, codes of marriage, inheritance differed from one shariah to another. But in all these Deen remain unaltered but the modes of following differ by the passage of time.

* And now, we have set you (O Muhammad, and sent you) to help establish a way of Religion (complete) contributing values of Religion so you follow what

- Importance of din in life?? The second part of the answer is missing and the first part is mostly irrelevant way and do not yield to the desires of those who are ignorant of the truth!

(Surah Al-Jathiah 45:18)

CONCLUSION-

Indeed, Islam is considered as Deen instead of mazhab (Religion). The aim of Deen is the welfare and progress of all mankind. whereas, religion focused on the faith, and worships on the individual matter. The importance of Deen rely that it provides you the roadmap of how a state should run how to protect minorities and make laws according to the shariah which is described by the messenger of Allah.

OS