

Does Poverty Lead To Crime?

OUTLINE

INTRODUCTION:

Thesis statement Poverty does ~~not~~ lead to crime. Poverty leads to crime, but white collar crimes, war crimes, sexual abuse and serial killings are not lead by poverty. ~~Poverty~~ Social crimes, domestic violence, and corruption - are poverty leads crimes. Poverty is not an instigator of all kinds of crime many are lead by other factors.

Poverty does not lead to crime. (Thesis)

- a) White collar crimes are totally dependent on the personality and grooming of a person.
- b) War crimes have basis in the policy making of one country.
- c) Sexual abuse and assault to a woman by a man is dependent upon the grooming and bringing up of one.
- d) Serial killings are ~~completely~~ completely dependent on the ~~ps~~ psychological condition of criminals.
- e) Brain illness and mental health issues are leading cause of crimes.
- f) Terrorism is a heinous crime, its causes are different then poverty.
- g) Cyber crimes at national or international level have root causes like political achievements, revenge, and diplomatic missions.

Crimes which are led by poverty (Antithesis)

- a) Corruption is a leading effect of poverty ✓
- b) Domestic violence and poverty.
- c) Civic disobedience has root causes such as poverty
- d) Robberies, thacoties are lead by poverty.
- e) Poverty lead to violence.
- f) Poverty is a leading cause of smuggling of goods. ✓

How poverty does not lead to crime. (synthesis)

- a) Corruption is not mainly the effect of poverty but of educational gaps, and other growing up factors
- b) Crime is mainly interconnected with mind set, not the financial condition of a person ✓
- c) Social system in which a person grows or social circle of a man is extremely important in context of crime. ✓
- d) Usage of expensive and banned drugs is not possible for a poor person. ✓

Conclusion

MON TUE WED THS FRI SAT
/20

CAN PAKISTAN EVER GET OUT OF TRAP OF FOREIGN DEBT?

OUTLINE

1) INTRODUCTION:

Thesis statement Pakistan can get out of trap of foreign debt. By doing micro reforms in institutions and tax collection processes. The path of getting out of trap of foreign debt can be halted by not indiginous attitude, over dependancy on foreign funds and lack of business opportunity. The process of getting out of foreign debt trap can be strengthened free trade agreements, encouraging local industries and decrease the political polarization in the country.

2) Pakistan can get out of trap of foreign debt (Thesis)

a) ~~Introduction of indiginosity, stand up for the~~ ^{exploration of its own resources and potentials.} ~~issues of country.~~

b) Micro reforms in ^{instrumentalization in} financial institution ~~through by instrumen~~ working postures of these institutions.

c) ~~Micro~~ reforms in ^{tax collection} tax collection procedures and processes by widening the area and transparency.

d) By encouraging the local market and industrial system.

e) By ~~attracting~~ ^{attracting} the foreign business community with to ensure their ~~safe~~ safety and security.

f) Eradication of corruption by ^{initiating} ~~doing~~ reforms.

g) Encouraging collaboration in trade with the regional countries by signing trade agreements.

3) How Pakistan can never get out of foreign debt trap (Antithesis)

a) By increasing its dependancy on foreign loans and aids.

- b) ~~Going for macro instrumentalization of institutions which can bring halt the working process.~~
- c) ~~Macro reforms of tax collection procedures may cause chaos in public and institution as well.~~
- d) ~~Subsidies and protection ignorance of local markets and industries.~~
- e) ~~By not making local market much attractive and secure to the foreign business men.~~
- f) ~~By not going for strengthening of institution and eradication of corruption.~~
- g) ~~Enhancing trade with Europe, ^{Middle East} which are far away and seems costly.~~
- 4) Getting out of trap of foreign debt is possible for Pakistan. (Synthesis)
- a) Less dependency on foreign aid develops ~~the~~ sense ~~integrity~~ of independency.
- b) Basic improvements can lead to ✓ big success
- c) Security and protection of foreign workers and businessmen ~~would~~ enhance the trust factor.
- d) Free trade agreement and economic cooperation lead to the way of getting out of foreign debt trap. ✓

Focus on proper deconstruction of the topic
 Improve sentence structure and grammar