The complex existence of human in this immense universe created in them a desire to know the mysteries of life. They looked forward to communicating with some supreme power to know about their wishes and future. Palmistry and interpretation of dreams were popular ways for foretelling the future. Nizar Hassan, after graduation started his career in cinema. In 1991, he produced "Independence" in which he exposed the fake Israelis' fake concept of Independence, when they captured Palestinian land. Later, when Israelis tried to annex more Palestinian lands, Nizar produced another film "My Grandfather's Path". The film had a message that if Palestinians would focus ^{too much} on their enemy, they would become like them. If they kept on condemning the atrocities and injustices of the Zionists on a daily basis, one day they will be like them and will forget their own beautiful ideals and aspirations. This is a trap that Palestine should avoid and should rather focus on their own art and literature. Nizar believed. This is long which requires patience to watch. Aljazeera
