QNO2 Precis.

Nizar Hassan, a filmmaker, produced a film "an Independence", in which, he exposed the fake independence of Israel. (When Israel captured another land of Palestine and was trying to annex it). Then, he produced another film "My Grandfather's path". The film has a message that if Palestinians would focus too much on their enemy, they would become like them. ~~If they kept on condemning~~

~~atrocities and injustice of the Zionists on daily basis, one they will become like them and will forget own beautiful ideals and aspirations.~~

This is a trap that Palestinian should avoid and should rather focus on their own art and literature. Nizar believed ^{that} o This is long film which requires patience to watch. Aljazeera podcast it in three parts but its real impact can be felt only if it is watched in one setting.
