

Rewrite the following dialogue, written in direct speech, in a paragraph form.

Klaus: Look, there's Ryan. Wink at him so he sees us.

Sarah: That won't work because he's too far away to notice

Klaus: No he isn't. Watch.

Sarah: Oh, you must mean wave, not wink. Does the work "wink" mean "wave" in German?

Klaus asked Sarah surprisingly to see and said that there was Ryan. Klaus ~~added that~~ further asked to wink at him so he could see them.

Sarah replied that, that would not work because he was too far away to notice.

Klaus disagreed said that no he was not, he asked again to see. Sarah replied ironically that he must mean wave, not wink. She added if the word "wink" meant "wave" in German.
