

Pakistan's Road to Leadership

In the contemporary era of mistrust and growing disintegration, global cooperation has become a necessity to ensure socio-economic well-being and global peace all around the world. However, despite having ambitious goals of cooperation and partnership, all countries in the world are reluctant to forgo their national interest on the cost of sustainable global peace and prosperity. The upcoming 'Summit of Future' under the ambit of the UN aims at ~~bring~~ Bringing sustainable peace and prosperity in the world. All countries are likely to participate in the summit. Pakistan has an opportunity to play a leadership role by presenting the ever-lasting remedies to prevailing issues of the world. The country should come up with multiple solutions to all global issues.

Firstly, the country can emphasize the urgency of global cooperation of climate mitigation. Pakistan is the 5th most climate-vulnerable country, faced a severe smash of floods in 2022, costing more than 40 billion dollars. Therefore, it must stress the need of global adaptation and rehabilitation plan and revival of 'Loss and Damage Fund'. Moreover, it the era of growing digital uncertainty and looming threat of cyber warfare. Pakistan can ~~or~~ attain the global support in formulating the framework of ethics in using AI and other digital technologies. It is need of hour to build global consensus on growing digital interference. Furthermore, the ~~country~~ must bring global concentration on growing wars and unfair trade competition.

The imposition of unilateral embargoes and trade sanctions on growing economies by the ~~core~~ countries harm the global trade competition and violate the Brettonwood agreement. Last but not least, Pakistan can play a vital role in bringing global attention on growing uncertainty of biological wars such as covid-19 and monkeypox virus. These are being used as a tool to ~~reverse~~ imperialist tendencies by bringing the vulnerable countries under influence. All these tactics must be discouraged to bring lasting peace and ensure co-existence.
