Comprehension ((SS 2017) Answer 1 It has been lamented in the text that art has disappeared from the ordinary life. It is no longer found in the objects made for the usage of people. Furthermore, individu -als who work do not pursue it anymore. It has rather become a domain of a few paintors and sculptors. Answer 2 The difference between ordinary man and an artist Dies in the latter's ability to find out and to realize the importance of the aesthetic activity of the spirit. Unlike ordinary man, an artist deeply observes the beacty of the universe and incorporates that discovered beauty in his work. In the process of doing so, the artist brings contentment to tris spirit Answer 3 We can make our lives beautiful and charming by understanding the significance of the works done by artists. The beauty should be looked for in the objects constructed by men as well as in the universe. Having this audiveness would allow us to bring contentment to our unfulfilled spiritual degives. Hence, practiciong this will make our lives beautiful and chairing. Answer 4 Beauty is not an ornament to life means that it is not to be seen as something with the primary purpose of providing pleasure.

It entails that it cannot be considered as some compo nent of our choice that can be purchased with extra money. Rather, It is something essential to life.

Yes, I agree that art and beauty affects our practical life and movals.

This is because art and beauty mirrors an individual's internal self. Failure to recognize and value them, whether in man made things or the universe, means failure to connect with the Spirit's aesthetic activity
