

Topic: Does foreign aid help to achieve economic stability?

I INTRODUCTION

Foreign aid is instrumental to address multiple problems which includes, economic, political, social and among others. However, some might disagree with this notion, which does not seem much convincing.

2 THIS IS HOW FOREIGN AID IS HELPFUL TO REVIVE THE ECONOMIC STABILITY

- a. Boost The Economic Sector:
 - (i) Increase production capacity of a country
 - (ii) Provide avenue for technological development
 - (iii) Opportunities for innovation
- b. It plays an important role by unifying political leadership:
 - (i) Build strong relationship between federation and units
 - (ii) stability in decision making relate to financial matters.
- c. Social level of benefits matter to strengthen social benovelence
 - (i) Ensure social development by leveraging economic activity

- (iv) Developed social infrastructure to revamp social mobility.
- (v) Provide basic necessities: Food, shelter and health facility.

3. VIEWS ON HOW FOREIGN AID UNABLE TO ADDRESS ECONOMIC STABILITY

- a. Vicious cycle of circular debt, however, it can ~~provid~~ depend the efficiency of the country how to utilize this opportunity.
- b. Dependency on Foreign ~~Aid~~ Countries or Institutions have toppled down the production capacity of a country, however, it provides an opportunity to escape from this dependency utilizing the fund.
- c. Political disunity among different political parties relate to foreign aid utilization, however, it provides an avenue to come under a single to address political grievances.

4. Conclusion