

Is democracy responsible for the current deplorable situation of institutions in Pakistan

Outline:

1. Introduction

Thesis statement: The question that whether democracy is responsible for the current deplorable situation of institutions or not has sparked many debates. Many argue that democracy is responsible for the current deplorable situation of institutions in Pakistan. However, evidences suggest that the argument that democracy is not responsible for the current deplorable situation of institutions in Pakistan holds a firm stand and outweighs the aforementioned claim.

2. The eagle's eye view on democracy and deplorable institutions of Pakistan

3. Democracy is not responsible for the current situation

Date: _____

of institutions in Pakistan (Thesis)

- (a) Military intervention is responsible for deplorable situation of institutions
- (b) Pakistani politician themselves are responsible for deplorable situation of institutions
- (c) The weak rule of law arise institutional challenges not democracy
- (d) Lack of accountability is making situation vulnerable of institutions instead of democracy
- (e) Security challenges threaten the institutions
- (f) Civil bureaucracy is hurting the institutions
- (g) Deep-rooted corruption has weakened the institutions

4. Democracy is responsible for the current deplorable situation of institutions in Pakistan (Antithesis)

- (a) Unfair electoral process has weakened the institutions by appointing incompetent people
- (b) Democratic government controls media, to hide realities and incompetency
- (c) Elected leaders comprise check and balance to seize continuous power: It

Date: _____

weakens the institutions

(d) Democratic process mostly favours the dynastic system and do not allow innovative thinkers

(e) Democratic government do nepotism and appoints their own family members

5. However, ground realities show that democracy is not responsible for the current deplorable situation of institutions in Pakistan
(Synthesis)

(a) Electoral process allow people to choose best from themselves unlike authoritarian bind their decisions on people

(b) Media only gets freedom in the democratic government: it allows to point out faults in the system so that democratic government can fix it.

(c) Democratic government ensure the transparency of institutions to strengthen the democracy

(d) Democratic process is the only process that allows visionary individuals to come forward.

Date: _____

(e) Politicians give tickets to everyone whom people are choosing its up to their votes

6. Conclusion