Why do I want to become a Civil servant of Pakistan?

Civil Service has always been associated with intelligence, power, and respect. Not only this, but it also offers a chance to serve Pakistan and contribute to its prosperity, no matter which cadre a person gets allocated to. These are the very reasons why I find becoming a CSP so appealing - I can feel it in my bones - a strong sense of responsibility and a desire to bring positive change to society. The prospect of making a real difference and upholding the values of integrity and service inspires me to pursue this challenging and rewarding career path. (words: 100)
