

Social Media: Blessing or curse

Outline

1. Introduction

2. Key factors that determine social media as a curse to modern world

2.1. Use of social media has made individual shallow and dependent.

2.2. Misinformation and disinformation leads to deteriorate reputation of even the most respected individual.

2.3. "Like and subscribe" culture has distanced the young generation from education

2.4. Easily access to obscene content brings about morally declining culture in society.

2.5. Excessive dependence on social media has made individuals feel lonely and isolated

2.6. Social media plays key role in creating political polarization and undermining democracy.

1- Social media promotes unrealistic lifestyle, leading to dissatisfaction and unhealthy pressure.

2- Social media offers advantages, making it blessing in digital era

3.1- Online applications and websites has made the world globalized and

3.2- Social media has become a source of information and communication

3.3 Platforms like youtube, instagram have created income generated opportunities

3.4. Knowledge and technological advancement shared on social media broadens the mind of young generation.

4. Conclusion