Pakistan has not succeeded to overcome this issue.

Terrorism in Pakistan has deep rooted ~~from~~ <sup>will</sup> the tenure of Zia-ul-Haq. In 1979, when USSR invaded Afghanistan, Pakistan's government made alliance with USA and backed the Taliban to fight against USSR. ✓

In <sup>20</sup> 1989, when USSR withdrew <sup>ff</sup> from Afghanistan, civil war started in Afghanistan between religious groups ~~which~~ <sup>were</sup> fighting against USSR army. ~~As~~ the result of civil war, Taliban ~~were~~ succeeded in getting the control of Afghanistan. ✓

Pakistan has its long border with Afghanistan. In 2001, after the 9/11 attack, USA started "War on terror" and this time again Pakistan was the ~~alliance~~ <sup>alliance</sup> of USA.

But this time war was against Taliban. Due to Pakistan's alliance with USA Taliban turned hostile towards Pakistan and they started attacking Pakistan. When Taliban started terrorist attacks in Pakistan Pakistan's government started operation against terrorists in Pakistan. This was the time when many terrorist organizations like TTP and TNSM came into existence which were backed by Afghan Taliban.

Sufi Muhammad was Pakistani national who started terrorist organization Tanzeem Nizam Sheriat - e - Muhammadi in Swat and Baitullah Meheud who belonged from FATA founded terrorist organization Tehreek-e-Taliban in 2007. This was the major blow to the terrorist attacks in Pakistan.

In 2008 Pakistani army killed TNSM supporters and leadership and took control of the Swat.
